Democratic Harmony.

The "Forty" and their adherents among the regular "democracy" seem, by their sharp practice, to be getting the better of the Antics in the delegates to the Convention, but the latter threaten to "beat them on the execution." The Madison Patriot, as usual, speaks its mind on the subject, as follows:

Now gents, try to cheat us if you will, but don't, we beg of you, act as though you imagined we were all confirmed old fools; don't imagine that we can't see the whole game. When an anti-Forty is proposed for a nomination, you go to work with might and main to circumvent and head him off, and you scruple not at the basest trickery and fraud to accomplish your purpo es. He must not succeed, any late—and why? "O, he is opposed to Barstow!" And herein you make Barstowism a test of Democracy, and herein you will get licked, for the people will stand nothing of that sort.

Now, we have no secrets about our political conduct—and we tell you flatly, that unless you stand back, and give honest men, who have not damned themselves and cursed their party, a chance, you may as well lay up your fiddles—for the great mass of the Democracy would a thousand times rather remain in the minority than to get power, and be responsible for a repetition of the follies, forgeries and rascalities of the past.

We speak advisedly, gentlemen—for we think we know popular sentiment better than you do,—when we say that you cannot successfully play your old game out before the people. Money and trickery may buy your nominations, but you must consult the people about the elections.

MISSOURI ELECTION.—The St. Louis Democrat of Thursday morning, says:

We failed on last evening to receive any list of the additional official counties from Jefferson City but late at night received a dispatch from reliable sources to the effect that one hundred counties have been heard from officially, and Rollins has 35,532; Stewart 35,782, giving Stewart a majority 247, with nine counties unofficial to come in. By our calculation it will be seen that Rollins has a majority of 438, with the counties of Butler, Ripley and Scannon to her from. We think these counties will give Stewart only a small majority from the fact that but a small vote will be cast in them. Unless, therefore, deep and unheard of frauds are still in contemplation or in process of perpetration, we are firmly of the belief that Rollins is elected. That the nullifiers are prepared to resort to any device or iniquity that they may compass their designs, we are well satisfied, and we say to our friends that the watch over their deeds must still be preserved, and the warning still held over their heads.

SEIZURE OF THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA.—We have already stated that information had come to this country, from a correspondent of the N. Y. Times, at Hong Kong, China, to the effect that instructions had been received by the U. S. Squadron, to take possession of the Island on Formosa, and hold it till indemnity is made for the losses of American merchants during the war.—We have seen no denial of the truth of the report, coming from Washington. The Times' correspondent says of the island:

The Island of Formosa lies about ninety miles off the south-east coast of China, embraces an area of about 12,000 square miles, and contains over two millions of Chinese inhabitants, besides an unknown number of natives, who inhabit principally the eas ern portion of the Island. The Chinese who live on the Island are generally of a bad character, as Formosa has for a long time been used as a sort of penal colony for the Chinese Empire; the natives are half civilized and cruel. The country is well watered and fertile, and produces great quantities of cotton, rice, sugar, with wheat, indigo, and various tropical fruits.

WM. B. OGDEN.—The Chicago Press contradicts the rumor that Mr. Ogden has been ruined by the difficulties of the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac R. R. It says;

Mr. Ogden's property in this city is quite sufficient to meet all his liabilities for the Company, and leave enough to enrich a dozen men. We learn also, that negotiations are now in progress, with a fair prospect of a successful issue, for such aid extension of time on the indebtedness of the Company as will result in its early relief from all embarrassment, as well as give opportunity to comply with the conditions precedent to the possession of a large portion of the land grant, on which money may be raised for subsequent progress.

STEAMERS FROM FOND DU LAC, NORTH.—The Green Bay Advocate says:

The STEAMBOATS.—Since the coup de main of the MR. & HORICON R. R. in purchasing the Winnebago fleet of steamers for their route, our Fond du Lac neighbors are looking to the Green Bay boats to fill their places, and are not disappointed. The Bella, much the finest boat of them, has so arranged as to leave Fond du Lac every morning connecting, with the Aquila at Menasha or Appleton for Green Bay. The Fannie Fisk and the Pioneer have gone up and now run on alternate days from Fond du Lac to the Wolf River. This makes a very good arrangement, and probably a profitable one.

SOUTHERN WISCONSIN RAILROAD.—The editor of the Monroe Sentinel says that the construction train was to run to Brodhead yesterday, and the gang of men laying track will push on directly for Monroe. A pile driver is at work on the Sugar River bridge, and no delay is anticipated there. The Sentinel expects the train at Monroe in October, without fail.

☞ Strahan, one of the London bank-swindlers, who is about to be transported to Botany Bay, is a man of great wealth, and was in the habit of giving the most extravagant entertainments to his friends. He begin life with $1,500,000 in cash, and estates worth at least $1,250,000; this large fortune being left him by Andrew Strahan, King's printer in the reign of George the IVth. Several of the other aristocratic embezzlers who go out with him, were also possessed of great riches.

LARGE MASS OF COPPER.—The propeller Mineral Rock has just taken to Cleveland the largest mass of copper, from the Cliff Mine, just taken out. It weighs 8600 lbs, and is 95 per cent pure copper.

The Rumored Capture of Delhi, with vast destruction of life

The rumor of the fall at Delhi which has excited such interest in England, though at the latest moment it was not generally credited, came in a letter received by the Bombay Times, dated the 14th of June, and read as follows;

"Delhi is captured. Thirty thousand lives lost, consisting of men, women and children. The British forces gave the mutineers only 24 hours' time to clear their families out of the Delhi fort; but they would not listen; they said that the English were speaking lies, 'Couch dur naye hey hum o k ke couch karna sackagaye," (there is no fear: they cannot harm us.) After the lapse of twenty-four hours, the British commenced firing till they razed Delhi to the ground. Everything is now quiet round about Delhi; but there are risings in small forces. A detachment is ordered to proceed there to guard the treasury, containing nine lacs of rupees. Five Fusilliers, on their march, met a number of the mutineers on the Allumnad road, and cut up a great many of them."

Steamer Lady Elgin.

At a meeting of the passengers held on board the Lady Elgin, Lake Superior, August 12, 1857, R. G. Stone, Esq., of Milwaukee, chairman, and F. C. Woodworth, Esq., of New York, Secretary, on motion the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we take this opportunity to express our unqualified admiration of the "Lady Elgin," and all her appointments; that whether in the capacity of a navigator, or in that of a caterer to the enjoyment of his passengers, we have the highest confidence in Capt. Pomykins and that we have found him and all the other officers of the boat uniformly capable, obliging and efficient.

The Last Arrival of Fugitives.

The great excitement, yesterday, was the sudden arrival of the Steamer Tennessee, from Greytown, having on board 260 deserters from the army of General Walker. These poor fellows accepted the invitation of the Costa Rican government, and took refuge in its camp when Walker's case had become hopeless. Fulfilling their promise, the Costa Ricans provided for them, until the arrival of the Tennessee, which by a stipulation with the parties to whom the Transit contract was awarded, left this port on the 1st of August, for the purpose of bringing them home. Eight of the deserters were sent to the Alms-house two to the Bellevue hospital, three forwarded to Philadelphia, and the rest quit cred for the night at the police stations—except a few whose credit was good enough to secure their beds and board at the hotels.

A more ragged, sickly and wretched band of men never exemplified the proverb that "the way of the transgressor is hard." For the purpose of raising temporary relief for them, several extemporaneous meetings were held in the Park and in Wall street, and between $500 and $600 collected. The men speak very harshly of Walker, denying him all the qualities requisite for a commander, except personal bravery.—N. Y. Times, 19th.

The Herald says of these poor wretches:

There is no power in pen to correctly describe their personal appearance—the artist's camera only is capable of doing justice to the sickly, sallow, ragged and three fourre picture of despair.—More than half of them were barefooted, many of them hatless, and not one that we saw had a complete suit of clothing—and even the scanty rags which covered their diseased and emaciated forms were repulsively foul and dirty. Almost every degree of age was represented, from the beardless youth of sixteen to the silver locks of sixty; and with their unshorn faces, sallow skins, sunken eyes and cheeks, and decrepid limbs, they presented a most pitiful picture of misfortune.

They were generally enticed away under a promise of 250 acres of land each and $25 a month pay. Many of them went to Nicaragua to settle, without any intention of joining the army into which they were pressed as soon as they landed, and of course they deserted at the first opportunity.

From the Advocate.

Green Bay Items.

A FLEET.—Last Friday we had seven vessels in together:—The D. Ferguson, Norway, Indus, White Cloud, De Witt, Freedom and Ketchum They arrived nearly together—the Cloud having got in on Thursday night, the others on Friday morning.

☞ The Geo. Osmon, steamer, which has been running here for some weeks, left on Thursday last for Lake Winnebago. As a freight boat, she is safe and reliable, and we commend her to the favor of shippers on the Lake.

☞ The Queen City, from Buffalo, came in on Saturday last with an unusual large load of passengers and freight. This steamer is gaining a popularity, from her superior accommodations and the regularity of her arrivals and departures, never attained by any other boat on the Green Bay and Buffalo route.

THE STEAM FERRY.—On Tuesday morning, the steam ferry boat of C. B. Wheelock crossed Fox river for the first time, and its gentlemanly proprietor invited everybody to cross and re-cross during the day free, which invitation was generally accepted by our citizens, who all expressed themselves delighted with the boat and its unique steam apparatus.

GREEN BAY AND CHICAGO.—The fine steamer Cleveland, Capt. Flood, takes the place of the Arctic on this route. She is an old acquaintance, possessing speed and accommodation equal to the Arctic. She is expected to be here in time to leave for Chicago on Saturday morning.

COL. FREMONT'S TITLES IN CALIFORNIA.—By late arrivals from California we learn that "in the District Court of Mariposa County, the injunction suit of the Merced Mining Company vs. Col. Fremont was decided for the defendant upon a general demurrer to the complaint. The injunction had previously been dissolved by the District Judge. The late decision of the Supreme Court (affirming the order granting the injunction) distinctly decides that the owner of the soil has the right to enjoin miners from taking gold or silver from the land. An ejectment by Biddle Boggs, lessee of Colonel Fremont against the Merced Mining Company, for celebrated mount of his Reduction Works, was also tried at the late term of the District Court, and although the defendants interposed an answer, in the nature of a bill in equity, insisting upon all their pretentions, and urging every conceivable objection to the Fremont title, after a protracted trial a decree was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for the possession of the land, with all the works and improvements, and damages for the detention."

SHARP PRACTICE.—The Courier of yesterday morning reports a case which properly comes under the above head, in which most of the lawyers in the city took a more or less active part. A lady of about forty, professing to be the wife of a Texan lawyer, and bearing letters of recommendation from Gen. Houston, the late Senator Rusk, &c., but being in destitute circumstances, applied to our lawyers for relief, and they raised her about $80. She put up at the De Soto, put on airs, excited suspicion that all was not right, provoked inquiry, and it finally came out that she was no better than she should be, but decidedly sharp set. She staid in the same way $150 at St. Paul and $40 at La Crosse. We have heard of her exploits before, we think at the South. She left on the eastern cars.—Galena Advertiser

OPENING OF THE HYATT HOUSE.—A meeting of the citizens of Janesville was held at that house last evening, for the purpose of making arrangements for celebrating the opening thereof. Hon. Andrew Palmer was called to the chair, and Chas. Holt, Esq., chosen Secretary. A committee of ten was appointed to superintend and perfect the arrangements, who will announce in due time their action.—Janesville Standard.

THE CENSUS AND ELECTION.—The returns continue to come in slowly. We have not access to official data, but we learn from those engaged in taking the census, and others, that the population of the State will doubtless reach sixty or seventy thousand, and the vote at the recent election be twenty to twenty-five thousand, although in a few localities, owing to local disaffections, the full Free State strength was not represented. —Kansas Tribune, Aug. 8.

THE CROPS.—The editor of the Lawrence Republican has recently returned from a tour through southern Kansas, and reports the crops in a very good condition, considering the severe drought which the country has suffered.—The rains of the last two weeks are bringing the crops on finely. Grass will be abundant, and corn and potatoes, with a continuance of seasonable rains, middling.—Topeka Tribune.

☞ "Waiter, if you call this bread, order me a buck." I want something softer."

☞ Many complain of neglect who never tried to attract regard.

THE NEWHALL HOUSE KITCHEN.—The reporter of the News the other day made an expedition into the kitchen of the Newhall House, and thus describes the sights he saw;

On opening the door of the cuisine a "Bonjour, Monsieur," from Monsieur Louis Nicoud, the Cook, followed up by a Frenchman's ever ready politeness, rendered the visit to that part—and the main part it is too, of any hotel—exceedingly pleasant. Monsieur, the cook, spoke in the highest praise of the kitchen, that it was the best arranged of any he had yet been in, in this country, and that with his help, of four assistant cooks, two firemen and six females, he could with ease provide for 2,000 people. By his kindness we were shown the mammoth Cooking Range, the six steamers, the wide, gaping, mouthed oven, and all the facilities for cooking for this little world of people, the Newhall House will soon contain. We were next shown the Pastry Room, a large one, with shelves and dressers, drawers, &c. This elicited praise, too, from the cook, which was responded to by the Pastry Cook, a countryman of Bobby Burns. The pastry cooks, several in number, were busily engaged in making the ornamental confectionery for the dinner at the opening of the the Newhall House, on the 25th. One was busy upon, and had almost completed, a model in sugar of Boyington & Mix. Another had nearly completed a model in sugar, too, of the first Hotel in Milwaukee, a Log House, one door and one window in front, a muddled slat chimney "all out doors." These upon the same table, are to represent the first, and at present, the latest hotel of Milwaukee. With an eye to State pride, another had nearly completed a model of the Capitol at Madison; while already finished was the State Coat of Arms, Groups of Indians, a Pioneer clearing the track, a man wrestling with two bears, and many other things were made and being made. Monsieur Nicoud assured us that when the dinner was ready and served up, it should surpass anything that had been seen west of New York.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—3 P. M.

General Walker, in official despatches recently received, says that in one point he has been grossly misrepresented, viz: as desiring every man to vote who happens to be in the Territory, on the day of the election for the ratification of the Constitution. This he remarks would be desirable if there was conclusive evidence that all such persons were actual bona-fide settlers; but the only sufficient and useful proof of such a fact, would be some previous residence. On this point, which is one of detail, he had never proposed to make suggestions to the convention, although when asked his opinion by members of that body, he had indicated a previous residence of three or six months, and that the same qualifications should be adopted in the constitution, not only at that, but all future elections. In his judgment, one or the other of these terms will be adopted by the convention, from whom he anticipated cordial cooperation.

It is somewhat extraordinary, he adds, while the accession of letting every man vote who may happen to be in the Territory on the day of election, has been preferred in the South, as indicating a desire to let in abolition vagrants and interlopers, to control the result, the Republicans of Kansas have drawn an entirely different conclusion, viz: That I design in this manner, to bring many thousand Missourians into the Territory, to decide the contest.

The Splendid was owned by G. J. Scott & Sons, and insured for $100,000. The Cunard steamship was in imminent danger once, but fortunately the wind shifted it. It is feared that Mr. Scott's son perished in the flames.

Hope Reviving.

From the Charleston (S. C.) Mercury.

In addition to the letters published recently from Gov. ATCHISON, we beg leave to say to our readers, that from other letters received from Kansas, we are informed that the Pro-Slavery party in Kansas is resolute in its determination of making Kansas a Slave State. On the 21st day of last month they were confident of success, and would form a Constitution with Slavery acknowledged in it. If this Constitution is referred to the people for ratification, it is intended to refer it only to the registered voters, who will doubtless ratify it. We have more hopes of Kansas than we have ever had. We have great faith in the fighting capacities of Southern men.

Recent events in Kansas have revived the hopes of the Slavery Propagandists. They had well nigh abandoned all expectation of carrying their point, but the "aid and comfort" of the Federal Administration, and the tactics of Gov. WALKER, have given them fresh courage.—Thanks to their help, they have won the first point in the game; that is, secured a convention unanimously Democratic, and unanimously, of course, Pro-Slavery. Their convention will frame just such a constitution as the slavery propagandists desire, and the only remaining thing is, either to submit their instrument to the "registered voters" only, or not to submit it to the people at all. In either event, having a Democratic Congress at Washington to back them, those arch-artificers of evil are confident of bringing Kansas into the Union as a Slave State. And this in spite of the concealed fact, conceded by all parties, that the vast majority of the people of Kansas are uncompromisingly opposed to Slavery and are determined that Kansas shall be free. We shall soon learn how the plot works, and upon what grounds the Charleston Mercury and other champions and admirers of the "peculiar institution," now have "more hopes of Kansas than they ever had."

FIGHT AT TAMMANY HALL.—The various sections of the New York democracy met recently at Tammany Hall, to cement a union, with hostility to the new Police Law as a basis, but instead of shaking into rank, they fell out into a general fight, tumbling each other around and rubbing the dirt with great zeal. No body dangerously hurt.

INDIGNATION AT ST. PAUL.—The St. Paul Times expresses much indignation that the Democratic Council, which has, on account of the absurd policy of the city, reduced the police and refused to provide fire engines, has voted a public dinner to Senator Douglas, at the expense of the Treasury. The Times says:

In these times when money is worth three per cent a month, men who love Freedom and hate Slavery are taxed to gorge their partizan enemies, and then mockingly invited to listen to the maudlin gospel of Slavedriving Dem gogue!

MARQUETTE, LAKE SUPERIOR.—The Cleveland Herald says that the visitors to Marquette have been quite numerous this season, all of whom express themselves highly delighted with the place, and its facilities for summer recreation. Three gentlemen had taken, with them from that line, three hundred trout in the course of a few hours from one of the streams near that place. The weather has been remarkably pleasant, although fires round the public houses in the morning and evening were found to be not uncomfortable.

A TESTIMONIAL TO MISS MITCHELL.—A movement is now on foot to present to Miss Mitchell, the astronomer, who is now in Europe, a handsome and appropriate testimonial. The Sharon Observatory, Massachusetts, is to be purchased and presented to her. It will cost $3,000, and the money is raised, partly among Miss Mitchell's friends in Philadelphia, and partly in Boston.

UNITED STATES BANK.—An advertisement appears in the Paris Presse from the Banking house of the Rothschilds, notifying the holders of debentures on the loan of 600,000 pounds, six per cent, of the United States Bank, that they are ready to pay dividends, &c., arising from the interests on the funds of Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan, belonging to the collateral guarantee deposit of the said loan.

"SNAIX."—It is stated that Mr. FAXON, of the Buffalo Republic, the discoverer of the celebrated silver Lake Snake, has withdrawn from that paper, and is about to start one on his own account.

NOT DROWNED, AFTER ALL.—LEE, one of the prisoners reported having been drowned in the Mississippi last week, came up safely, it seems. He had made his escape only one hand, and saved himself by swimming. He was, however, detained and arrested by a Galena officer.

☞ Thanks to the steamer Ocean Wave, for late St. Paul papers, two days from the press.

A MANLY POLITICIAN.—Hon. Edward Stanly, Republican candidate for Governor of California, has written a letter defining his position. He says:

When in Congress, as well as in the Legislature of my well-beloved native State, my opinions were not concealed from my constituents.—Though in common with all Southern men, I condemned the attempt of Abolition to interfere with the rights of the Southern States, I never resorted to say in public speeches, as in private, that slavery was no evil; I never was guilty of the folly of saying what seven Presidents—beginning with the Father of his Country and coming down to the time of Polk—had admitted, that Congress had the power to prohibit the extension of slavery to free Territory By these declarations opposition was stimulated, and sometimes obstruction followed.—But it, on appealing to the sense of the politicians, to patriotic Whigs and Democrats—to the people—I was timid, I only sustained. When I advocated the right of the people of California to enter the Union as a free State, I was threatened with the loss of the confidence of my constituents; but against furious opposition I was sustained.

Letters about Milwaukee and Wisconsin.

NUMBER THREE.

MY DEAR ——.—Can you divine the signification of Milwaukee? Being an Indian name, it must bear interpretation, but as I have not been able to obtain its definition, I will refer it to your ingenuity, furnishing a clue, in the fact of a town in Pennsylvania, bearing the name of Chillisquaque, being translated Frozen Duck. Whether this will admit of as "cold a solvent", I know not, but would rather testify to the beauty of the place. Many of the handsomest residences are built on a high bluff, along the line of the Lake fronting the East. Some attempts are being made to terrace the bank to the water's edge—the effect of which would be very beautiful as seen from the Lake, as you can readily imagine from having beheld the cultivated shores of Seneca—much time, and labor would be required, to bring it to the same perfection as those beautiful hanging gardens of Geneva, which enter so largely into a "coup d'œil" of that highly cultivated region. Even if finished in the same style, the effect would be different, as the shore is higher, and bolder than in fair Seneca, the buildings are of more pretension, and the whole scenery more extensive. There are the same exquisite moon-risings, only upon a more expansive scale, the water here supplying the horizon for its broad disc, as she slowly emerges from the profound caverns of her sleep. Then shall I describe some of the resplendent scenes, which have faded with the last wane of the morn, but which are of frequent recurrence upon the shores of Michigan? It beggars all description, but for its counterpart I would refer you to a sun-set upon Cayuga Lake; when the retreating King of Day envelopes the scene, in his royal robes of purple and gold. No poet, nor painter; could transfer to paper, or canvas, the scene of enchantment; none but nature could hold one so spell bound. As if entranced, the deep blue waters lie hushed, and send but whispers to the pebbly beach; the sails scattered here and there, as they catch the moonbeams, seem like floating visions of a dream; aerial messengers to some far off land. And mark, where the headlands break the silver sheen, and the dark curved outline forms the setting to this favorite mirror of the Queen of Night; then turn, and view her effulgence as spread upon the architectural piles along the bank.

Are they not so many palaces, as turret, dome, cornices, corridor, frieze, and architrave, are outlined in the mellowing light, and any defect, or superfines are concealed, or softened. There are some very handsome buildings in other quarters of the town, which, like a panorama, is spread out on all sides of you, except in the very core of the city. These residences have more or less ground attached to them, and are more or less cultivated according to the time that has been employed, or the taste of the occupants exercised.

When I reflect that it is only eleven years since it was incorporated, that in 1840 it contained less than 2,000 inhabitants and that it now numbers 45,000; that most of the many palatial residences have been erected since 1850, the whole seems like magic; I can hardly force from myself the conviction that I am in some charmed spot, where every thing springs up under the hand of genii; and to those who have spent their lives in decayed southern and eastern towns, where it is said the last mail is driven, and repairing premises is considered an indictable offence, the account would no doubt seem fabulous.

In grading the city it has been necessary to cut away a portion of the bluffs, which has left some five residences standing high and dry, like an eagle's eyrie in the air: the ascent being by a high flight of steps, and the stone work needful to secure the embankment awakens very slightly some dormant ideas of castellated walls of the feudal ages, only one looks in vain for the moat and the drawbridge.

Milwaukee has a native brick, with which most of the houses are built; being of a rich cream color in appearance, it has a light and beautiful effect, when surmounted with white cornices, or contrasted with dark oak mouldings, which are much used in the construction of the exterior of dwellings. These brick are of wide celerity, and are of two kinds, distinguished by the manner of making them, one being only burned, the other first pressed. The latter being much handsomer in having a smoother surface and used in the facade of buildings, command the difference in price of from $4 to $12 per thousand. This brick making constitutes an important item among the industrial pursuits of the city, and as the article is so much superior to any which has before come under my notice, it is to be hoped that the making of it may soon increase over a home consumption.

COIN AND BULLION IN THE U. S.—The Director of the U S Mint, in a recent report, estimates the amount of coin in this country at $204,000,000.

War between the Sioux and the Chippewas.

We regret to learn that hostilities have again broken out between the Sioux and Chippewas.

On or about the first of the present month, a war party of the Red Lake and Pillager bands of Chippewas, attacked detached parties of Sioux, hunting or hunting, in the neighborhood of Lac Travers. The Chippewas took between thirty and forty scalps, and then hastily retreated down and across Red River, homewards. At one of the white settlements on Red River, they killed five head of cattle, and destroyed considerable lumber.

Late advices from the Sioux Agency represent that a war party of Sioux has gone in pursuit of the Chippewas.

A body of troops will probably be immediately sent to the Chippewa country to arrest the murderers, and intercept the Sioux, before the commission by them of the acts of hostility.

The professions of a desire for peace, on the part of the Chippewas, last spring, were made, undoubtedly, with the intention of deceiving the Sioux into a state of fancied security.—St. Paul Pioneer.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE.—"All men are created equal" is the first proposition in our political catechism, and there is no reason why the two hundred persons of African descent who reside in Wisconsin, should be denied its benefits, except a stupid prejudice against "niggers," which every sensible man ought to be heartily ashamed of. There is not man who does not feel a conviction, that physical differences ought never to deprive a man of his political rights, that a dark skin is no more a valid reason for denying the right to vote, than a short nose or a red head.

Let us then with one accord, unite to wipe out the last restriction, which remains in the organic law of Wisconsin, in defiance of the great and living principle of equal political rights to all men.—Racine Chronicle.

Milwaukee and Mississippi Rail Road—Letter from the President of the Company.

OFFICE OF THE MIL. AND MISS. R. R. CO. }
NEW YORK, August, 1857. }

To the Stockholders of the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. Co.:

GENTLEMEN: The inquiries made by some of you lead me to think that the repeated attacks and unfounded statements against this Company contained in some of the newspapers of this city are either wholly or in part believed, and thus acted upon—which may fairly be inferred from the sale of the stock at the present low prices. I am therefore induced to make a few brief statements, in rather a general manner—I say general, because of the distance from the office of the Company, where the books and papers are kept—so that you may (if you choose) be governed by them, rather than by the statements and rumors put forth from day to day by parties whose object should be apparent, and thus avoid sacrificing your property, which sacrifice is the object aimed to be accomplished in most cases by these attacks.

The article to which I allude more particularly at this time appeared in the Money articles of The New York Herald, of the 14th inst. This states that the Company have a floating debt of $900,000; that the Company will require a further expenditure of $1,600,000 to complete the old and new roads—$1,000,000 to complete the Southern Wisconsin line—$170,000 to bridge and fence the old line—$200,000 for bridges on the old line—$90,000 for wharfs at Prairie du Chien, and an issue of $1,000,000 of preferred stock.

Here is an array of figures and a detail of objects to which they belong that would lead almost any one to suppose there is, at least, some truth in them; yet I pronounce each and every one of them false; and shall now give the facts touching each item as near as I can, not being able to give the precise figures for reasons before stated.

In a circular on behalf of the Company, dated the 17th of March, 1857, and signed by some of the Directors and the Register, the floating debt of the Company is put down at $312,155 68. This sum has not been materially changed since that time, but by applying the net earnings of the road to its payment, which is now being done, it will be very much reduced by the 1st of February, 1858, the close of the fiscal year.

About the first of this month the Company made a final settlement with Cooke & Lockwood for the building of that portion of the main line extending from Madison to Prairie du Chien, a distance of 96 miles. This contract embraced in the work—grading, ballasting, bridging, masonry, right of way, fencing, superstructure, depot buildings, indeed everything necessary to be done to complete a first class road ready for the running of the cars. I therefore can state positively and distinctly the amount still required to complete the main line from Milwaukee to Prairie du Chien, to wit: $30,000 for fencing, $2,000 for ballasting, and about $20,000 for further depot accommodations, in all $70,000 and no more, which sums were deducted, in the final settlement, from the amount the contractors were to receive, because they were embraced in the contract, but were not fully performed, and therefore no extra amount for ballasting or fencing is required.

As to the Southern Wisconsin line, the charges are equally false. That portion of this line under contract extends from Janesville to Monroe, a distance of 35 miles, of which 20 miles will be completed and opened for use on or about the 1st of September, and the remainder, to Monroe, between the 1st and 15th of October. The whole amount still to be paid for work done and to be done to complete the Company's obligations on this line, will not exceed $40,000 or $50,000.

The raising of the two bridges over the Wisconsin River, to admit of a more easy and uninterrupted passage of rafts, was proposed to be done by responsible parties for less than $5,000, and will not cost more than that sum.

The last and most ridiculous statement is that of $90,000 for wharfing at Prairie du Chien. Wharves on the Mississippi River would, indeed, be something new, and quite useless, except at one particular stage of the water. At Prairie du Chien, the Milwaukee and Mississippi Company have a natural levee for 2,000 feet in extent on the river, requiring no artificial means to make it unsurpassed for all needful purposes.

As an answer to the falsehood in reference to preferred stock, I here insert the following communication, which was sent to The Express, the paper in which that statement first made its appearance:

OFFICE OF THE MILWAUKEE AND MISSISSIPPI R. R. Co., No. 87 Exchange place, NEW YORK, Aug. 13 1857. }

To the Editor of the New York York Express:

I beg leave to advise you that the idea of this Company's issuing preferred stock to the amount of a million of dollars, or to any amount whatever, has never been suggested or thought of by the Board of Directors, and that no necessity for such course exists, as the Company have control of all the funds necessary for present purposes.

It would be quite satisfactory to the managers of the Company, as well as to the stockholders, if you would state where you procured the suggestion contained in your yesterday's edition, in reference to the issue of such preferred stock, particularly as I now assert that such suggestions must have emanated from a party or parties wishing to injure the road and to depress the market value of our securities.

EDWARD H. BRODHEAD President.

Having replied to the items in detail, I now add that before the close of this year, unless the pressure of business upon the road shall delay it, the Company will have completed its main line to Prairie du Chien, 192 miles; and its Southern Wisconsin line to Monroe, 44 miles, an aggregate distance of 236 miles, for less than $7,200,000, which sum I can now state, from the near completion of the entire work, will cover all the expenditures of every name and nature connected with the building, and furnish the 236 miles of road, which is less, too, than the same number of miles, equally well constructed, have ever heretofore been built in the West. If it be necessary to increase that sum hereafter, it will be for additional equipments and additional facilities to do the increasing business.

This sum will be represented by $8,400,000 of stock, the bonds of the Company, $3,700,000, $122,000 paid by sinking fund, and the residue by so much of the floating debt as may remain unliquidated at the close of the fiscal year.

To provide for the interest on the Bonds will require.....$222,000
Sinking Fund.....53,500
Ten per cent dividends on the Stock.....340,000
Total.....$675,500

To accomplish the above result and allow 45 per cent for running expenses, (which will cover also the wear and tear and depreciation for some time to come, owing to the cheapness with which wood can be purchased, which is one of the largest items in the running expense account,) will require that the gross amount earned in one year shall be $1,825,000, which, taking as a standard what the Company has earned per month from May 1, when the road was said to have been in operation to Prairie du Chien, and making no allowance for an increase from the completion of the Southern Wisconsin line, although its cost is included in the sum stated, nor from the completion of the Detroit and Milwaukee railroad, will undoubtedly be earned.

I have only to add that I have been connected with the management of the Milwaukee & Mississippi road, as its Chief Engineer and Superintendent, for nearly six years past, and have been familiar with all of the important transactions of the Company, and therefore can state, from my own knowledge, that the legislation of its Directors has been uniformly of the most careful and correct character, and that the true financial condition of the Company has always been given in the Directors' annual report.

In presenting these statements, my duty to the stockholders is performed. They must alone determine whether they will believe them and thus save the sacrifice of their property, or whether they will be governed by the gross libels which are daily spread broadcast, and take the opposite course.

As the Company have never made semi-annual reports, it is, perhaps, proper for me under the present circumstances to state in this communication that the semi-annual dividend, which, according to the former custom of the Company would have been paid on the 1st of July past, has been deferred on what the officers of the Company believe to be sound financial principles, to wit: that of paying the debts of the Company from the money earned, rather than to borrow or sell securities at enormous sacrifices for that purpose, which must be done by any Railroad Company who attempt the latter course in the present unsettled and unhealthy state of the Money market in reference to the value of such securities. The ability of the Company to pay its regular half yearly dividends, as soon as the floating debt is sufficiently provided for, is fully set forth in this communication.

Stockholders in considering this subject must bear in mind that the deferred dividend, when applied to the payment of debts of the Company, goes directly to their credit and benefit.

Respectfully,
EDWARD H. BRODHEAD,
President.

COUNTERFEITERS.—The trial of the counterfeiters recently arrested in Indiana, is progressing at Ripley County in that State. Some of the scoundrels arrested confessed their guilt, and told where a list of the gang—three hundred in number—could be procured. The list was found at the place indicated, and the officers of Ripley, Dearborn, and adjoining counties are now in pursuit of them. A great many persons, it is said, have been taken with a sudden leaving for Kansas and other new countries.

Why a Minister Left his Church—Brutal Outrages on the Slaves.

The Rev. Samuel Sawyer, a graduate of the New York Union Theological Seminary, and for the last nine years pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Rogersville, East Tennessee, was recently driven from his Church in consequence of his course in regard to the beating of a slave named Antbony by his master, one Col. Netherland, an elder in his Church. Mr. Sawyer has published nothing in regard to the affair until driven to it by slanderous reports prejudicial to his character as a minister, which have been circulated and forced him to his own defence. He therefore publishes a long statement in a supplement to the Knoxville (Tenn.) Presbyterian Witness, the truth of which is vouched for by Messrs. Joseph Hoffmaster and J. M. Johnson, elders of the Rogersville Church. The Col. Netherland, whose brutality is so disgustingly shown, has been elected a delegate to the Secession Convention called by the Pro-Slavery ministers of the New School Presbyterian Church, to meet at Richmond on the 27th instant.

It appears that a slave, formerly belonging to the children of Dr. Ross, was owned by Col. Netherland, and was sold in 1855, to be sent to Mississippi. Rather than go "down South," the negro ran off to the woods, and remained concealed for more than a year, until found and brought back by some hunters. He was then handed over by Col. N., with his chains on, to the trader who bought him, who took him back of the church, in a field, and there, in the presence of a crowd of spectators, beat him over three hundred and thirty blows, laid on with a leather strap nailed to a board, while the slave was tied down on his back, naked and blindfolded. The trader whipped him to make him confess who had harbored him, and probably would have "beaten him till Saturday night," if such an excitement had not been caused by the first instalment of scourging.

But this was not the worst. Col. Netherland owned an old gray-haired slave who had nursed him in infancy, and suspecting that he knew more about the runaway and who had harbored him than he chose to tell, he handed him over to the same negro trader, to be taken to a neighboring county and there beaten at discretion, to make him confess.

The trader took the old man to a place called Bean's Station, in the next county, (Grainger,) and there, on Sunday morning, in a stable, on the public highway, stripped and tied him naked on a plank, strapped his feet to a post, and tied his head forward to a brace, and then whipped him by striking with a carpenter's handsaw—Mississippi way—which raises large blisters and bursts them, cutting the flesh in places. He whipped him that Sunday till all the neighbors closed their doors—whipped him till the negroes put down their windows and closed the curtains—whipped him till the women, driven wild by hearing the blows and the negro's agonizing cries for mercy, called out against it—till one man declared if he did not stop he would return him to court—till the landlord of the tavern, after hearing in silence the infliction of at least three hundred blows with the saw, went to him and told him that he must put an end to it—that he himself was liable to indictment for suffering such things on his premises, and that he was unwilling to bear it any longer. The trader became very angry at this interference and told the landlord that he had sent a boy to get him a bundle of whips to scourge the negro's back when the flesh should be too much cut up by the saw; and finally, finding he could not go on, he tumbled the negro into his wagon in disgust at the Bean Station people, and went to Rutledge.

The Slave had two fits in consequence of the beating, but, notwithstanding, the trader tied him up again in Rutledge jail, while the jailor (who would hardly have allowed it) was away, and beat him with three sticks from a loom, over the raw flesh, until he was tired, and then told him he would try it again the next day. The Inspectors, however, refused to let the jail be used for such a purpose, and the negro was sent home in a week, no information having been obtained from him.

Thereupon a great excitement arose at Rogersville, and the Church Session unduly requested Col. Netherland to come forward and show he was not responsible for the outrage. He refused to do this—declared he had a right to beat his negroes as much as he chose, or have it done—that churches had nothing to do with politics—and finally wound up by declaring Mr. Sawyer an Abolitionist, and that he must leave. Mr. Sawyer, thinking that the church would be divided if he stayed, and his friends being too much afraid of being called Abolitionists if they stood up for him, resigned the charge of this church, with its most righteous elder, and came away.

From the Boston Journal.

Negro Right of Suffrage in Maine.

The Constitution of that State limits the right of suffrage to "male citizens of the United States."—Under this clause negroes had always voted. The Legislature, therefore, asked the opinion of the Supreme Justices upon the point whether free colored persons of African descent, otherwise qualified, are authorized to vote by this clause of the Constitution. The majority of the court have just rendered their opinion in the affirmative.—The take the very just ground that the right of citizenship guaranteed to colored persons in several enumerated States, prior to the adoption of the national constitution, made such persons citizens of the United States—that in Maine, then being a part of Massachusetts, such persons had the right of suffrage—and that on her separation the exclusion of negroes from that right was moved in the constitutional convention and voted down. The opinion concludes thus:

From the adoption of the constitution to the present day, it is believed there has been no instance in the State in which the right to vote has been denied to any person resident within the State on account of his color.

In view of these facts and considerations, we are of the opinion that our constitution does not discriminate between the different races of people which constitute the inhabitants of our State, but that the term "citizens of the United States" as used in that instrument, applies as well to free colored persons of African descent as to persons descended from white ancestors. Our answer, therefore, is that—

Free colored male persons of African descent, of the age of 21 years and upwards, having a residence established in some town as plantation in this State, three months next preceding any election, and who are not paupers, aliens, nor persons under guardianship, are authorized under the provisions of the constitution of this State to be electors for Governor, Senators and Representatives.

JOHN S. TENNEY,
RICHARD D. RICE,
JONAS CUTTING,
SETH MAY,
DANIEL GOODENOW.

The opinion is said to have been drawn up by Judge Rice, who was an active Democrat till he went on the bench. Judges Appleton and Davis, whose names do not appear among the above give separate opinions of greater length, although agreeing fully with the conclusion of the majority opinion. Judge Hathaway dissents, out of deference to the Dred Scott decision, although he thinks that free colored persons whose ancestors were not "brought into this country and sold as slaves," may have the right of suffrage.

TEA TASTING.—A New York writer gives the following particulars of the effects of "tea tasting" and sampling upon the constitution of these engaged in the business:

"The death of a famous tea broker in this city lately, calls to mind the curious nature of his business. I wonder if any of your readers at the West know that their healthfulness in the choice of the herb which cheers, but not inebriates, is the cause of the establishment of a profession—called "tea tasting"—which is a certain death to a man as the continued practice of opium eating. The success of a tea broker, or taster, depends upon the trained accuracy of his nose and palate, his experience in the wants of American markets, and a keen business tact. If he has these qualities in high cultivation, he makes from $20,000 to 40,000 per annum while he lives. He overhauls a cargo of tea, classifies it and determines the value of each sort. In doing this, he first looks at the color of the leaf and the general cleanliness of it. He next takes a quantity of the herb in his hand and breathing his warm breath upon it, he snuffs up the fragrance. In doing this, he draws into his lungs a quantity of irritating and stimulating dust, which is by no means wholesome. Then sitting down at the table in his office, on which is a long row of little porcelain cups and a pot of hot water, he 'draws' the tea and tastes the infusion. In this way he classifies the different sorts to the minutest shade, makes the different prices, and is then ready to compare his work with the invoices. The skill of these tasters is fairly marvellous, but the effect of of the business on their health is, as I have said ruinous. At the end of a hard day's work they feel and act as fidgetyand cross as a hysteric old maid."

THE HARVEST.—Our farmers have a very large crop of grain to harvest, but we fear that the weather, which is alternately wet and hot, will hinder them to some extent. Yet, it is generally believed that they will be enabled to secure their crops without much loss. Corn is ripening very fast, and promises a large yield. The root crops, which appeared to grow very slowly in the spring, are now expected to be at least an average.—Galena Adv.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Religious Intelligence.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND.—The Committee of the Upper House of Convocation on Missionary operations at home and abroad, after stating the circumstances which render the old parochial system at present insufficient, suggested a series measures as amongst those which, it appears, might under God's blessing be beneficially adopted.

Among other things, the petition of the Tithe Redemption Trustees, presented by the Bishop of Salisbury, showed,—

That the maintenance of the Christian ministry in every parish of the land is a sacred duty of primary importance.

That tithes were dedicated of old to Almighty God for that purpose.

That there are now no less than 4,000 parishes in England and Wales where tithes thence accruing are applied to other purposes than to the maintenance of the Christian ministry in those parishes.

That the amount of tithes applied to those other purposes exceeds a million and a half of pounds sterling annually.

That in the far greater number of those parishes there is no adequate provision made for the maintenance of the Christian ministry.

That consequently the moral and religious condition of those parishes is deeply to be deplored.

Your petitioners, therefore, humbly pray your lordships to devote your earnest attention to this important subject, and to exert your best endeavors in order that an adequate provision may be made in the parishes aforesaid from tithes accruing therefrom for the maintenance of the Christian ministry, and for the Spiritual welfare of the people.

A similar petition was presented to the Lower House.—Church Journal.

INDIA.—Every member of the Mission of the Church of England Society, for the promotion of the gospel, at Delhi, has been murdered by the savage rebels that have taken possession of that city. It is not often that such an array of martyrs is added to the ranks of Church heroes in a single day.— b

A BLACK BISHOP.—The Bishop of Sierra Leone, Rev. Dr. Weeks, having recently deceased, the London Star gives general currency to the rumor prevalent in clerical circles, that the appointment to the vacant See is likely to be conferred on the Rev. Samuel Crowther, a man of color, whose history is well known in connection with religious efforts in that latitude. The late incumbent was universally respected, and had been Bishop only eighteen months.—Galaxy.

CHURCH AT LYONS.—The new Evangelical Church at Lyons, France, was opened July 5th. Adolphe Monod had promised to be present, but he has passed from the scene of labor to that of rest.

BAPTISTS IN THE UNITED STATES.—The grand total of regular Baptists in the United States, as appears by the American Baptist Almanac for 1858, is 897,718. The number in the British Province 28,812; in the West Indies, 36,000.—Total in North America, 962,580. Besides these, the number of those who practice immersion is put down thus: of Anti-Mission Baptists, 68,000; Free-will ditto, 19,800; Six Principles, 2,500; Seventh Day, 7,200; Church of God, 12,800; Disciples, or Campbellites, (estimated,) 200,000; Tunkers, 8,200; Mennonites, 25,280; in all, 862,080.—Independent.

SPIRITUALISM IN NEW ORLEANS.—The Spiritualists of New Orleans have gone a bowshot beyond their brethren in any other part of the country. With an audacious blasphemy that surpasses the most horrid impieties of the French Revolution, they have professed to call up the Divine Founder of Christianity, and, in language that might make a French atheist shudder, caused him to deny his own Divine character. If, after this monstrous exhibition of the sheer infidelity and total depravity of Spiritualism, believers in Christianity can longer retain faith in that gross and impious imposture, they must be prepared for the logical consequence of a formal renunciation of Christianity.—Observer.

THE GIFTS OF THE POOR.—The New Bedford Standard says that a contribution of $2,000 was taken in the Catholic church in that city, last Sabbath, for the purpose of erecting a new church. A lesson of liberality may be learned from this fact when it is remembered that probably nearly all who contributed are dependent upon their daily wages.— Independent.

DR. TYLER.—Rev. Dr. Tyler, who has just resigned his Professorship at the Seminary at East Windsor Hill, Ct., on account of the infirmities of age, is to receive an annuity of $600.— Ib

A WORD TO SEXTONS.—Have it in mind that at all seasons, and more especially during the summer, a good sexton will give his careful attention to the ventilation of a church. "If the windows," says a writer, "were in all cases arranged so as to be easily lowered, and on days when a strong, cool wind blows, if the windows and doors were only opened on the side from the wind, so that the impure air would pass off, and the wind be prevented from rushing into the building, the comfort and health of the hearers would be greatly promoted. If the wind blows strongly on the heads of an assembly, colds, catarrhs, and fevers are the natural result. But if houses were opened mainly on the side from the wind, the danger would be avoided, and the air could be easily changed. It is not a religious duty to regard the health and real comfort of worshipers?"—Protestant Churchman.

A HALF of fifty inside lots remain to be sold, and all of the upper county here offered to secure a lot on a number of lots, has before been presented in Milwaukee, and most certainly brings a title to homestead within the reach of every one, as many hundreds of mechanics who have already availed themselves of the method of selling can testify, still we consider the accounts and effects haunted and intend to continue to furnish more for the mechanics and laboring classes as long as there is demand to their means as heretofore. MILWAUKEE & MISSISSIPPI R. R.
SHIPPERS OF FREIGHT and the Merchants of the Upper Mississippi River are notified that merchandize for the various landings marked to the care of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Rail Road at Prairie du Chien, will be received there on the levee by the undersigned for shipment at TARIF Rates:—

One of which new and powerful side wheel boats leaves the Prairie every day at 6 o'clock for St. Paul, arriving there the next day at 10 o'clock A. M.
It is the object of both the Road and the Boats to prevent all unnecessary charges, and as goods are transferred by the Rail Road Company directly from the cars to the levee, without any exposure to the consignee, no commissions whatever will be permitted to be charged.
Merchants will bear this in mind in making their shipments, and as it is the interest of every one connected with this Route to make it a popular one, no delay will take place in sending freights forward.
